

THE INDIAN WAR IS ABOUT OVER.

A Peace Commission Makes Terms Satisfactory to the Pillager Indians.

READY TO COME IN AND SURRENDER.

If the Terms Are Acceptable the Hostile
Red Men Will Lay Aside
Their Firearms.

THE INDIANS LAUGH
OVER THE BATTLE.

They Say They Just Wanted a Little
Fun, and Assert That Not a Man On Their Side
Was Hurt.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 12.—The Bear Island or Pillager Indians have agreed to surrender, and war has been averted. It only remains for the terms to be arranged before the hostiles will come into the agency. Father Aloysius Homan, Gus Beaulieu and Chief Gwa-Cha-Way-Bimung, the three peace commissioners, who left on the Flora Tuesday evening for the hostile camp, got back at 4 o'clock this morning. They got to the camp at Black Duck point at the mouth of Boy river at 9 o'clock Tuesday night. The Indians on watch responded to the signals, and the three peace commissioners went ashore in a skiff, carrying flour, bacon, sugar, rice, tobacco and canned goods. They met a large number of Indians back in the woods and were given a cordial greeting. The battle of a week ago was talked over. The Indians alluded to it as a "little fun." They asserted that none of their number was killed or wounded.

Bag-Mah-Ge-Shig was not in conference with the peace commissioners, but his greetings were shouted back and forth across the little bay between him and the commissioners.

The Indians were familiar with every movement of the troops and marshals, and nothing told them was new. They asked why the newspaper men had not come out, and said they expected them. When it was explained that it was thought advisable for only a few people to go out, the hostiles laughed at the fears of the people and invited the correspondents to go out.

The report in writing will be made to Indian Commissioner Jones. The emissaries refused to make public their report until it is submitted to Commissioner Jones. They say the Indians will come to the agency when a reply is sent back to the questions asked in the report of the commissioners.

IN MORRO CASTLE FOR THIRTEEN YEARS.

Samuel Ensign Tells of His Experience in Cuba, and How He Was Treated
For Defending a Woman.

Rockford, Ill., Oct. 12.—Samuel Ensign, an engineer of the old time Racine and Mississippi railway, a resident of this city many years ago, has returned, old and broken in health, with a sad story of imprisonment and suffering in Cuba.

When Ensign left Rockford he went to Cuba, where he obtained a situation as an engineer in a sugar refinery. One night Ensign, with two fellow workmen, resisted an assault being made upon a native woman by Spanish soldiers. The next morning, Ensign says, all three were taken prisoners to Havana, where they were placed in Morro castle. One of the men died in seven months, and the other lived two and one-half years. For 13 years and 8 months, Ensign alleges, he was confined in the castle, allowed to speak to no one, and only to walk through a corridor 240 feet long for recreation. At the expiration of that time Ensign says, he was taken out and set to work with a ball and chain on his ankle at constructing a plaza. At that he worked for more than five years. He became friendly with priests and attendants in a neighboring monastery, and one night was spirited away and placed on a man-of-war that finally landed him in Mexico. When placed in prison, Ensign claims, he had certificates of deposit to the amount of $6000 and $1000 in money, none of which was returned to him.

They will occupy apartments reserved for them at Hotel Pasaje.

No mail, accordingly, should be sent to San Juan until such a station has been established.

Graham Continues His Testimony.

Washington, Oct. 12.—General Graham continued his testimony before the war investigating commission. He furnished the committee with a statement showing the percentage of sickness in the Cuban army at the end of Sept. 30. The statement showed a general increase for the entire period, the highest percentage being 6 per cent, towards the end of September. General Graham believed the proximity of tents one to another at Camp Alger responsible more than any other cause for the sickness there, and said the medical officers also were of this opinion. He thought the want of water for bathing purposes and the habits of the men eating other food than that prescribed by the regulations had deleterious influence.

Need More Supplies.

New York, Oct. 12.—Red Cross Agent Barnes has cabled Stephen Barton of the executive committee here that all the volunteers in Porto Rico have been ordered home, and that 10,000 regulars will be sent from the United States to take their places. Scrofula Leads to Consumption.

Inherited blood diseases are much more difficult to cure than those which are acquired. One of the most common hereditary diseases is Scrofula, which the medical profession admit is most obstinate and deep-seated; and their efforts to cure it meet with little success. A child afflicted with Scrofula is always puny and sickly, and can never grow into healthy manhood until the disease is eliminated. Scrofula leads into consumption nine times out of ten, so that it is important for this reason that immediate attention be given to all children who inherit the slightest taint.

My three-year-old boy had the worst case of Scrofula I ever heard of. His neck was covered with sores, and the disease finally resulted in curvature of the spine. Physicians, after two years constant treatment, failed to do him any good. Some one recommended S. S. S., and as soon as his system was under the effects of the medicine, the sores began to get better, and in a few weeks had healed completely. Before long he could walk on crutches, and was improving every day. In three months he threw aside his crutches, for he had no further use for them; the dreadful disease had been eliminated entirely from his system, and he was restored to perfect health. The cure was a permanent one, as no sign of the disease has returned for ten years.

W. A. CLAYTON, Addie, N. C.

When my daughter was an infant she had a severe case of Scrofula, for which she was under the constant care of physicians for several years. She was worse at the end of that time, however, and we almost despaired of her life. A few bottles of Swift's Specific cured her completely, as it seemed to go direct to the cause of the trouble. I believe it has no equal for stubborn cases of blood diseases which are beyond the power of other so-called blood remedies.

S. I. BROOKS, Monticello, Ga.

Scrofula is frequently an inherited blood taint, but is often acquired by an impoverished condition of the blood, caused by impure air, poor ventilation and other deficient sanitary surroundings. It matters not from what cause it arises, Scrofula is a deep-seated blood disease for which S. S. S. is the only cure, because no other remedy can reach the impurity in the blood and force it out. S. S. S. eliminates every trace of the taint, and a perfect and complete cure is the result. S. S. S. is purely vegetable and is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain not a particle of potash, mercury, or any other mineral.
